Over the past couple of months, a number of companies have lost tens of thousands of rands due to alleged fraudulent request for “COLD DRINK”, supposedly from government departments.

The fraudsters are currently calling service providers claiming to be Joburg Market officials requesting monies in exchange for an appointment.

Officials from Joburg Market will never be in contact service providers and request any form of compensation in return for an award.

Should you receive such a request, please report it to tenders@joburgmarket.co.za

Companies are therefore advised to verify all the awards by calling the Joburg Market on the contact details listed on website to verify authenticity to avoid falling prey to these fraudsters.
